Consulting

M&A Advisory · Asset Sales and Divestitures · Financing Arrangements · Turnarounds and Workouts

There is a sobering statistic: More than 70 percent of all acquisitions fail to live up to expectations. The transaction begins with sunny expectations of $2+2=8$, with synergies expected to result in ever-rising profits. However, many complex areas (i.e. market trends, earnings and quality concerns, operational integration aspects, cultural issues, etc.) are explored only superficially. Many acquirers underestimate the costs of the integration, overestimate the synergies and run headlong into cultural barriers.

Steeplechase can help you plan for, and close, the potential gaps inherent in a merger or acquisition. We have specialized industry experience and knowledge in executing M&A transactions, providing services to equity investors, strategic buyers and specialty finance companies.
